Multidisciplinary approach to congenital and acquired cranio-maxillofacial defects

Sigmund Freud - cancer of the jaw (1923). During sixteen years, he remained productive, enduring painful treatment and 33 surgeries but never gave up the cigars. He died from euthanasia 1939.

• Oral cancer - Tobacco, virus, alcohol
• Telemedicine as a supplement in the daily practice, for e-Learning and science
• Virtual planning, Computer assisted surgery
• Bone regeneration and osseointegrated implants
• Evaluation of functional outcome quality of life

Aetiology
Prevention
Intervention
Reconstruction
Rehabilitation
Evaluation